

INDIGENOUS PHD PROGRAM CHECKLIST

- Graduate student committee formed with four members (chair/advisor identified)
- Initial Graduate Study Plan developed and tentative research topic identified
- Student meets with committee at least once per year to review progress and submit an Annual Report to the Graduate School
- Complete minimum course/credit requirements for Indigenous Studies PhD:
  - Complete two research methods courses (6 credits)
    - (3 credits) _____
    - (3 credits) _____
  - Complete core course requirements (12 credits)
    - CCS/ED/RD/ANL 608, Indigenous Knowledge Systems
    - CCS/ED/RD/ANL 690, Seminar in Cross-Cultural Studies
    - Core elective (3 credits) _____
    - Core elective (3 credits) _____
  - Specialty area electives (12 credits minimum)
- Complete a semester at a partner institution (optional)
- Make a national/international academic presentation
- Make an Alaska community or regional level presentation (e.g. WAISC)
- Participate in a cultural immersion experience (e.g. a cultural camp)
- Complete 9 credits in an indigenous language (for language specialty area)
- Student must enroll in a minimum of six credits per calendar year to remain active
- Comprehensive written and oral exams on three areas relevant to research topic
  - External examiner requested from Graduate School two weeks prior to exam
- Advancement to Candidacy (complete semester before graduation)
- CCS/ED/RD/ANL 699 thesis requirement (minimum of 18 credits)
- Dissertation defense seminar and oral examination
  - External examiner requested from Graduate School two weeks prior to defense
- Application for Graduation (deadlines Feb. 15, July 15 and Oct. 15)
- Student must be enrolled in three credits during the semester of completion/graduation
- Graduation!