(moderator) Historical Photographs-a Window on Native History and Culture

With Jim Simard, Harold Jacobs, Steve Henrikson,
Bill Holm, Ron Klein

Historical photographs represent a major source of information on the culture of the Native people of southeastern Alaska. Although some of these images have already been studied and published by researchers, they have only rarely been analyzed in collaboration with the members of the native communities. Previous researchers have also rarely provided detailed biographical information on the photographers themselves. Our session attempts to remedy this deficiency by examining the biographies and the cultural background of Vincent Soboleff (an amateur photographer and a long-time
