at the services last sabbath some of them belong at other places and will go soon.

We don't know just how many will be here this winter.

Some of the boys and girls have been coming in for lessons. I have no books no paper and but one pencil with me but I can teach them some for they are so eager to learn.

We expect to see you in Nov.

Mr. A. N. Evans,

Dear Friend:

Johnnie Hadley asked us to write to you about going into the Deering field. We write as he wanted.

We have not gone up to Camille yet as we waited for our freight to be unloaded and then the river had begun to freeze over so we wait for the dog sleds.
