ALASKA DIV. NOME, ALASKA.

Mr. Walter Shields

Kotzebue, Alaska

Dear Friend; Enclosed you will please find several bills of sale, some of which should have been mailed you earlier.

You certainly had a hard trip reaching Deering from here.

We have lots of snow up here now. The tundra is about as level as the ice and almost as firm. It makes it very hard for the deer to feed. You see it was warm, thawing for a few days - snow fell that was very wet almost rain then turned cold and froze - the combination of depth & hardness of the snow makes the mess hard to reach -

I am needing some favor record blanks, both camps are out of them.

Will it be alright with you if it is with the local authorities for us to use the school house to hold our annual Conference in, from July 13th - 19th inclusive this year The Mail Carrier is due in five minutes so will close -

Sincerely,

Milton L. White
