

Nome, Alaska. March 13th. 1914.

Mr. H. N. T. Nichols, M. D.,

Kotzebue, Alaska.

Dear Doctor:-

Your vouchers at hand and enclosed you will find checks to cover all but the duplicates, besides a couple of others that I trust you will have no trouble in delivering.

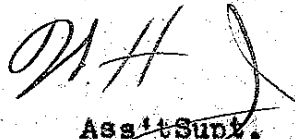

I have sent you a large supply of drugs as per your last request but I'm afraid that they are held up en route. The mail being congested at Solomon and it will be some time before it will move. I have no idea when you will receive them.

Mrs. Nichols and Miss Hawk's vouchers were mailed to Seattle after being O.K'd here. They will be paid promptly upon their arrival.

Glad that you survived the ~~the~~ Shungnak trip. It is a big trip and a hard one. Shields states that there were no special hardships except some very cold weather. I look for Mr. Shields to reach Nome about the 20th. of March.

Regards to all.

Very respectfully,

Ass't Supt.
