

Copy of duplicate(received from W.Cox) sent to Seattle.

Location of Friends Mission Site at Kotzebue, Alaska.

Notice is hereby given in the name of the Friends Church of California, that the following described tract of land is located and claimed under the act of June 6.1900, by and for the Friends Mission of Kotzrbue, Alaska. Said Mission having been established in the year 1897.-

Beginning at the initial corner, the north corner of the northeast end of the galvanized iron ware house of the Friends Mission, where a stake No.1, is driven and a copy of this notice is posted; thence about one fourth of a mile, more or less, in a southeasterly direction to Stake No.2; thence about three ~~mi~~ miles, more or less, in a southerly direction to Stake No.3; thence about sixty rods, more or less, in a slight south of a westerly direction to the ocean shore line to stake No.4; thence about one hundred fifty one rods, more or less, following the ocean shore line in a north-westerly direction to stake No.5; thence about one hundred eighty one rods, more or less, following the ocean shore line, continuing in a north-westerly direction to stake No.6; thence about one hundred eighty one rods, more or less, following the ocean shore line in a north-west to a northerly direction to stake No.7; thence about two hundred rods, more or less, following the ocean shore line in a north to north-easterly direction to stake No.8; thence about fifty five rods, more or less, following the ocean shore line in a north-easterly direction to stake No.9; thence about fifty rods, more or less, following the ocean shore line in a north-easterly direction to the point of beginning.

~~This record is made as a substitute for the location recorded on August 9, 1900, which was found to be incorrectly worded.~~

Sept. 26, 1910

Signed Friends Church of California

By W.H.Cox, Supt. Friends Mission, Kotz. Ala

COPY

Copy of duplicate(received from W.Cox) sent to Seattle.

Location of Friends Mission Site at Kotzebue, Alaska.

Notice is hereby given in the name of the Friends Church of California, that the following described tract of land is located and claimed under the act of June 6, 1900, by and for the Friends Mission of Kotzebue, Alaska, said Mission having been established in the year 1897.-

Beginning at the initial corner, the north corner of the northeast end of the galvanized iron ware house of the Friends Mission, where a stake No. 1, is driven and a copy of this notice is posted; thence about one fourth of a mile, more or less, in a southeasterly direction to stake No. 2; thence about three miles, more or less, in a southerly direction to Stake No. 3; thence about sixty rods, more or less, in a slight south of a westerly direction to the ocean shore line to stake No. 4; thence about one hundred fifty one rods, more or less, following the ocean shore line in a north-westerly direction to stake No. 5; thence about one hundred eighty one rods, more or less, following the ocean shore line, continuing in a north-westerly direction to stake No. 6; thence about one hundred eighty one rods, more or less, following the ocean shore line in a north-west to a northerly direction to stake No. 7; thence about two hundred rods, more or less, following the ocean shore line in a north to north-easterly direction to stake No. 8; thence about fifty five rods, more or less, following the ocean shore line in a north-easterly direction to stake No. 9; thence about fifty rods, more or less, following the ocean shore line in a north-easterly direction to the point of beginning.

This record is made as a substitute for the location recorded on August 1900, which was found to be incorrectly worded.

Sept. 26, 1910

Signed Friends Church of California
By W.H.Cox, Supt. Friends Mission, Kotz. Ala