

Nome, Alaska. Dec, 8, 1913.

Dr. Nichols,

Kotzebue, Alaska.

Dear Doctor:-

I am Mailing you a couple of checks for Kotzebue people and I want you to see that they get them. The one in favor of Thos. Berryman is for an assignment by Fred Sickler and is to be placed to the credit of John Wise. At least that is what the memo. says. Except one dollar which is for 6 yds. of gingham that was purchased last spring for Pt. Hope.

The check to the Midnight Sun Tr'd Co. is for a sack of flour purchased by Sickler March 29, 1913.

Your voucher and Miss Hawks are on the way to the Great outside and will be paid to the proper parties by the Seattle office.

I am in a deuce of a rush for your mail just arrived and the out-going mail leaves in a short time, so will wish you all A Merry Xmas and Happy New Years galore.

Sincerely yours,

Ass't Supt.

Business is rushing. Purchase your unbleached cloth as needed and maybe I'll get a chance to send you a little after a while.
