

Kotzebue

Nome, Alaska. Oct. 23, 1913.

Dr. H. N. S. Nichols,

Kotzebue, Alaska.

Dear Doctor and the REST;

I am mailing you two-hundred and twenty ($20.00) dollars. One hundred to Mrs. Nichols and one-twenty to you. Also a check for Cora B. for cash advanced for repairing stove etc. and a small check to Mr. White for transportation furnished you. Gee, I wish I had such a wad drop at my feet at one time.

I sent your Aug. salary ($60.00) on the Corwin. I had it officially sealed and I trust that you received it. Keep me posted in regards to the receipt of your money. It takes a certain amount of worry of my hands. Perhaps the large store at Kotzebue would be willing to cash your checks. They have been only to glad to get them, heretofore.

Very respectfully yours,

W. A. H. Johnson

COPY