Nome, Alaska, Aug. 28, 1912.

Miss Ivy Kenworthy,

Deering, Alaska.

My dear Miss Kenworthy:

I beg to inform you that I have been notified by wire of your reappointment as teacher in the Deering school. Your appointment will date from Sept. 16th and the regular term of appointment will reach you in due time. Your salary this coming year will be in conjunction with the other teachers who have also been appointed.

With best wishes for the success of your work,

Very truly yours,

District Superintendent.
