

Deering, Alaska.

COPY
Apr. 30, 1913

Mr. W. C. Shields;

Supt. of Schools N. W. Alaska

Dear Sir:

Harry Karmun
 has informed me that the Stanley Herd was not counted when they took it to Shismaref for that purpose Stanley did not meet them there as they had expected, and Karmun did not go with them. The other Herders and Apprentices were afraid that some of the unborn fawns would be hurt if they tried to run the Herd through the corral.
 Stanley's brother who is one of the Herders says Stanley will stay at

Arthur MacFarlane will stay on Shismaref
 and the other herders

COPY

one apprentice with the herd this year.

COPY

Harvy Karmun, who is Head Herder now, says they will try to count fawns and females during fawning season, and lassos the male deer and count them the last of June, but I think it is doubtful whether they get that done or not.

It may be you saw Stanley at Wales.

It looks like no accurate account or report can be made of the Stanley Herd again this year. I have tried hard to get a count made.

COPY

Shall I send in an estimated

It + to be done