Nome, Alaska, January 16th, 1913.

Dear Mrs. Dunscomb:

Your letter and coupons at hand, and noted you will send check for $10.00 next week. I notice that you fill in the blank following "to the appropriation that is correct" and also that you use the abbreviation to enter it against in my books. I will send you one copy of the Rules and Regulations for the Reindeer Service, under separate cover.

Since from what you say you are in better health it is no need to do anything for a person is not feeling well. I have been hearing very good reports from Mrs. Brownell and Miss Sheldon of late.

Yours very truly,

Special Disbursing Agent.
