

Deering, Alaska
Sept. 11, 1912.

Mr. W. C. Shields,

Nome, Alaska

Dear Sir:

Your favor of Aug 22 was received yesterday.

We learn that Snow's engine has secured a salmon license again, and now he holds his head up again. We lost a pretty much downcast after the visit of the Bear.

A number of white men are here now, but we have had no trouble.

Sincerely, Martha Sannicutt

COPY