

Nome, Alaska, Sept. 16, 1914.

Supply and Disbursing Office,

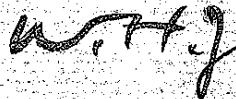

Seattle, Wash.

Gentlemen;

Enclosed is the voucher for cash advanced by Mr. Fred Sickler for freight delivered by dog team from the near Kiana to Shungnak.

If there are any others relative to the same freight, I trust that Capt. Backlund has them.

Very respectfully,

Asst Supt.

Say! if the 'busy Bee' should see the way I'm kept on the jump, she would feel so mortified about her hum-drum existence, that the thought of the little she accomplished would make her die of inertia.