SUBJECT, _____

Mr Walter C. Shields

Nome, Alaska.

Dear Sir;—

Every year the traders in this region are notified from time to time as to the advance and decline of the fur market.

As the natives possess no such information they are at a disadvantage.

I respectfully suggest that you should refer this matter to Mr. Lopp in order that he may consider taking steps towards furnishing the natives with the current prices of furs.

This information might be sent by telegraph to Nome or Candolle and forwarded from thence to the Government teacher, at such times that prices are ^{or} for cash change.

Respectfully

Fred M. Sickler
