Mr. A. W. Evans,
Nome, Alaska.

Dear Sir:

I regret to learn by your letter of the 5th inst. that I must have made an error in purchasing supplies to bars with the balance of the $300.

As this way the $300 will go much farther. I have made arrangements with a white man by the name of Marshall to boss the job for $5.00 a day. He is to be paid in these supplies.

He is a first-rate carpenter and a nice man to work with.

I can only say this. I wish the Dept. would deduct from my salary cost of freight on the goods from Kotzebue to Shungnan, if I made an error in buying them. I shall later assign a voucher to you and you have my authority to take this freight money and refund the government. I am very sorry this has happened. You ~~have~~ mentioned some supplies to be sent for barter in this case and as there were none listed on the bills for that purpose, I imagined I was to buy them of Dick Hall (Backlund).

Trusting you can right the error as far as possible by using this money, I am;
Very truly yours,
Chas. Jones.
