Private1. Sept. 26, 1914SUBJECT, Reindeer supplies.

Dear Mr. Evans,

In portioning the supplies to the R. Herders, should I affortion it by the local price or by the Seattle price? Would you mind repeating the oral suggestions you gave me concerning the care of the reindeer and especially about the quantity of provisions I should give each Herder this winter as I am afraid I have forgotten much of what you said, it is so long ago. Mickey married a widow with three small children last summer and it seems to me that he, at least, should receive a full portion this year. The boys have hardly no fish cached for the winter but I have two of them now fishing up the river. They complain also about not being able to sell their reindeer under the present restrictions. Will you tell me just in what ways they may sell their deer. For instance is it possible to sell a deer and reserve the hide? I have no official information at hand on this subject. The boys say if they could sell their reindeer for $25 and reserve the hide they could buy their own supplies.

Very truly yours,

Chas. H. Jones,

Teacher U.S. B. of Ed.

P.S. Are there any blanks for the boys to sign when they get their supplies as a receipt for the same?
