Mr. L. C. Evans
Ketchikan, Alaska

Dear Friend. We are getting along nicely. We made arrangements to send Evans Gummack to the herd as an apprentice Eskimo manse (Okvik). He seems to be the studiest boy and I think he will be the most satisfactory.

Were the proposals papers for bids on freight contracts put with your paper when here, I failed to find them I wanted to send them to you I thought maybe they got with your papers through mistake.

Michael Blake just came in he says he would like to be a Raindeer boy he is the boy that was with the mail carrier he is married, his wife as the woman that did your sewing while here. Could there be arrangements made to send him out this spring.

The natives are busy getting out logs for deer are glad for the chance.
Confidential. I am told that some of the white men are going to ~~have~~ build cabins where they please here in the Villiage that we have laid out a they also say that they are going to make this a squaw town as you know Brown from candle left his squaw here and will return after the dog race and as you also know there one case of that kind here now.
What can we do to protect our natives and town.
