Mr. W. C. Shields,
District Supt. of Schools,
Nome, Alaska

Dear Sir,

Enclosed you will find list showing the amount and value of the wood furnished by each native, and the amount and value of the barter goods given him in payment, for the months of January and February 1915. I am also enclosing the two sets of Circular Proposals.

Every thing is going nicely. The natives expect to go to Sealing Point about April 1st. Mr. Ausley and I have not yet decided about going over.

We have written a letter to Peter Garfield to come as soon as possible for his deer, as the boys want to take the deer to Sealing Point by April 15th.

It is now 12:45 P.M. and I have been writing for quite some time.

Yours truly,
Mrs. Sue B. Ausley
